I'm sorry for so many questions, but I think this is most important,
If your wife were threatened, if you were me and incidents occurred as I've detailed:

1. In your professional opinion would you personally expunge, or appeal?
2. In your professional opinion would an appeal have any chance at success?
3. May I retain you for any future circumstances, please?

If your answer remains expungement, please bill me, and let's proceed.

Thank you for this information,
Here are three follow-up questions:

1. Is it true that only one expungement may be performed in a lifetime?
I only ask because my Dad has even tried, unsuccessfully so far, to cause situations where I could possibly be in trouble for things I haven't done due to his own actions in the past.
2. After expungement, would I still be able to sue, not any establishment, lawyer, nor public official, but my Dad in civil court over the circumstances if needed or desired?
3. Should I contact the ISP, or would you contact them to delay the hearing on my behalf? I'm unsure of how to request that it be delayed until after expungement since I wouldn't know.

With expungement, would I still have the ability to put forth an appeal Pro Se for this decision if I desired to do so?

I sincerely apologize for my foul language, how may I make this right?

It is my wish to speak with you in depth about my case and wish to appeal in depth, which, in my unqualified opinion, isn't a "normal" situation.

My case in 2017 resulted in a plea deal with two misdemeanors, for which I've completed all sentencing, and I'm currently eligible for expungement, but reserved my right to appeal. During the end of my case, my 2nd Amendment rights and lifetime gun permit were retained, but these have come into question recently with my case being referenced despite

When I contacted the Indiana State Police regarding why my gun permit has been suspended I was told this case, and my license, was being reviewed as me "mishandling a case." Recently I was told I'd need to report to a hearing and attempt to retain my Lifetime Gun Permit, and in my opinion, it seems your prior ruling to retain my rights may be being challenged.

Before my case my carry pistol needed to be smithed, but was still unfortunately not working properly, and I'd been taking it to the range in attempts to determine if it was faulty.

committed sexual harassment against Chelsie, attempted to assault Stephen Champagne with a cue ball, intentionally gotten her intoxicated then tried to abduct her from me when she passed out. Jeremy's now followed me belligerently over 50 feet from the bar to the parking lot while too drunk to drive, prevented me from leaving and threatened my life. I don't want to kill a man, but I'm fully prepared to keep Chelsie, possibly our unborn child, and myself, safe from Jeremy Lewis.

Jeremy yells at me "DO IT!" and begins to start toward me again and abruptly stops as I point the gun upward and turn off the safety. A shot discharges as I continue screaming "GET THE HELL AWAY FROM ME!"

Jeremy continues screaming "SHOOT ME! DO IT! SHOOT ME!" begins coming forward again with his hands clenched and near his shoulders. Backing away quickly, I point the gun at his chest and continue screaming "GET THE HELL AWAY FROM ME!" trying to issue as many warnings and show as much restraint as possible and not shoot Jeremy Lewis unless absolutely necessary. He continues screaming enraged "DO IT! SHOOT ME!" and I continue to exercise restraint hoping help will arrive.

Continuing to back away I immediately holster my carry as four people grab Jeremy attempting to restrain him. Jeremy continues to move toward me screaming until a fifth and sixth person grab onto him. A man named Josh begins screaming in my face as I tell him "Keep him away from me" pointing at Jeremy. He prevents me from going to Chelsie as she drunkenly exits the car. Four strangers grab me and repeatedly try to throw me to the ground as I'm yelling "What are you doing?! Stop!" but I don't try to punch or hit any of them and a fifth man reaches into my waistline and removes my carry. Another man who later claims he was a former police officer comes up behind me and chokeholds me until I entirely pass out even though I'm not fighting him in any way. I wake up to the former police officer straddling me while I'm on my back with my head facing West and "D" the bartender to the south of me in the direction of the bar. Jeremy is repeatedly approaching Chelsie wherever she goes in the crowd of people but he's not trying to do anything more now that people are around. I'm worried about Chelsie but the former police officer threatens to choke me out again if I try to move and "D" tells me "You fucked up, you're going to jail. Your woman's tricking you." None of them are concerned about her safety even though Jeremy has attempted to assault a man with a cue ball, sexually harassed her, tried to kill me and abduct her. Even though Chelsie was either drugged or became so drunk she passed out.

The man who was identified as a victim in my case, Jeremy Lewis, followed us uninvited to two separate establishments and made threats on our lives and safety, and of others.

I hope you're doing okay.

I know I may seem like a st...y friend. But my intentions were good. I was just trying to look out for you guys and hid aggression seemed purely towards me, so I figured if I left it would subside.

I do apologize.

I got your guy's back. I was sober by the time we left kips and I didn't drink anything at Joe's. That guy gave me that vibe the last time I saw you with him.

I did witness him grabbing your a... and you pushed his hand away and it was clear you were wasted so I said something to Jon and that dude came over and took the cue ball off the table and asked if I was Stephen and then was trying to get me to go outside and fight him and was trying to hide the cue ball in his hand to hit me with if I went outside but after telling him to drop it a few times he did and a bouncer came over.

I got your guy's back. I was sober by the time we left kips and I didn't drink anything at Joe's. That guy gave me that vibe the last time I saw you with him.

ORDER ON DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT

This matter comes before the Court on defendant's, Western Wayne School Corporation ("Western Wayne"), Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. Plaintiffs, Jon Brent Turpin and Linda Becker Turpin (collectively, the "Turpins"), filed this lawsuit individually and on behalf of their son J.F.T. ("JT"). The Turpins contend that JT was subjected to verbal and physical abuse in Western Wayne Schools stemming from sexual orientation discrimination. The Turpins bring three federal claims in this suit, one based on Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §§ 1681-88 and the other two based on 42 U.S.C. § 1983 predicated on violations of the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment. The Turpins also bring a negligence claim under state law against Western Wayne. The Turpins make additional state law claims against the parents of one of JT's alleged abusers. Western Wayne argues that it is entitled to summary judgment on the Turpins' Title IX and § 1983 claims. Western Wayne does not seek summary judgment on the negligence claim but requests that the

A. THE TURPINS' TITLE IX CLAIM

Title IX provides that "[n]o person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity." 20 U.S.C. § 1681(a). "Although the only remedy expressly authorized by the statute is the termination of the recipient's federal funding, the Supreme Court has held that Title IX contains an implied private right of action for money damages." Doe-2 v. McLean County Unit Dist. No. 5 Bd. of Dirs., 593 F.3d 507 (7th Cir. 2010). When the Supreme Court determined that Title IX's prohibition against discrimination was implicated in cases involving sexual harassment, it relied on a case decided under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. See Franklin v. Gwinnett County Public Schools, 503 U.S. 60, 75 (1992) (citing Meritor Savings Bank, FSB v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986)). Since then, federal courts have used Title VII precedents to inform their analyses of sexual harassment and discrimination claims under Title IX. See, e.g., Doe v. Univ. of Ill., 138 F.3d 653 (7th Cir. 1998), vacated on other grounds; Bd. of Trustees v. Doe, 526 U.S. 1142. The Seventh Circuit has consistently held that discrimination based on one's sexual orientation or perceived sexual orientation is not actionable in the Title VII context. See Howell v. N. Cent. College, 320 F. Supp. 2d 717, 722 (N.D. Ill. 2004).

School started Aug. 22
JT had his first, what I thought was a temper tantrum
8-23, 24, and 28.

JT was so mad. He cried, pounded his fist on the table, and screamed at me. The sounds he made were terrible. It was inaudible. He held his teeth together. He sounded like a panicked animal. The other students were frightened. He made no effort to leave his seat. I don't know how long these tantrums lasted. Every thing was so new and we were all just getting to know each other.

I talked with Jon and we're both at a loss. Linda called our house around 9-3, we talked at length, but really don't know what to do. We did decide to have some kind of snack every day. JT seemed to do better when he ate something around 10:00. It might be a cookie, a glass of punch, sometimes a piece of fruit.

9-13 JT was out of control again. Talked with Jon 9-14. We are going to go for a % every day. JT goes to the bathroom 3-4 times in 2 1/2 hours. He waits till the last minute. He did not ask for drinks. I thought maybe a sugar imbalance.

10-12 JT hit me in the face. I was keeping him from going after one of the students. I don't know that he would, but it wasn't worth the chance. It seems like these spells last about 5-10 minutes. They end quicker if I can get JT to focus on something else.

10-17 JT hit me again. It wasn't as bad. He was sorry fairly soon. The students have learned to move away from JT when he's out of control. Some just automatically put their heads down on their table.

10-24 Parent Conference- Academic great, temper terrible.

11-1 Substitute, all went fairly well until they were lining up at 11:00. JT hit the sub. because he didn't like his place in line. At least that's what she decided.

Most of Nov. and Dec. fairly calm, or we just know what to do, or not to do. JT is very defiant. He expects the other students to behave. If they don't he hits them. He apologizes, usually. He interrupts, but usually it's something to go along with school. JT was mad at me if I didn't give him a high enough % to get his finger paint. (his reward)

One time in Nov. JT had a spell. I really thought he was having some kind of seizure. His eyes rolled, he screamed, pounded his fists, and he trembled. When he calmed down I asked him if he knew what happen. He said it felt like electrical shocks.

Most of the time the students are willing to play with JT. They are very forgiving. JT can be very kind. He volunteered his dad to wire Christopher's tree house.

We didn't come back to school until 1-15 because of all the snow. Jon said their Christmas was not a good one. The first week back was hard on all of us. Being out of a regular routine really upsets children (and teachers!) Many of the students kept asking how soon they could go home. The mood of the class was not good.

1- JT screamed, pounded, and cried. He was mad because Jon did not hug him good-bye. It didn't matter to JT that he had thrown his coat in the middle of the floor, had taken off his boots, but was still in his socks, and he'd been working on the computer. JT made no effort to see Jon.

JT now brings his own snack that Linda packs for him. Before all the students had a snack with him. Kids are handling that fairly well.

JT is an excellent student at least orally and intuitively. His written work is messy and disorganized when he writes. He's is able to almost tell time, he counts to over 100, and I tested him on recognizing the numbers 0-50 out of order. He knows the capital and small letters and their sounds. He does not color well. He can't (or won't) stay in the lines when he colors or he uses a different color when I give specific directions. If I say write your name at the top he may write it at the bottom. JT has some letter and number reversals especially the "u" and "n" in Turpin. JT has learned to look at the alphabet cards that are posted in the room, to help him remember the directionality.

2-22 The students go to the library at 9:00. We'd already talked about Ground Hog's day. The librarian had brought up a reference on ground hogs. The students were standing around the computer when JT started pushing because he couldn't see. I asked him twice not to move or I would take him out of the room. JT started to yell. I picked him up and we went to our room. I put him in my chair so he could thrash around and be fairly safe. JT kept yelling at me. This was the first time I had been able to understand everything JT was screaming. He said I couldn't keep him in that chair, he wanted to go to the library. I said fine, (I've really worked on staying calm with him), but he couldn't go back until he was quiet. He yelled some more. I asked him to help me grade some papers. He yelled again about being in that chair. He acted like he was tied. (He wasn't) I said you can come and sit with me. He said he would not grade those papers, but he did come and sit with me. It didn't take long and he was telling me how to grade some papers. He was very definite about how poor some of the papers were and how they needed sad faces for grades. JT got a Kleenex, blew his nose, sat back down, calmed down, and hand-in-hand we walked to the library.

I asked him about the library later and he said he couldn't see. I told him I knew that, and that's why I moved him, and finally picked him up. He said he didn't want me to yell at him. I said I didn't and hadn't. We know that won't work. He even got 20% when he went home and didn't yell at me.

I apologize for the length of this note. I just keep thinking there's a way to work around JT and give him what he needs to cope with life. We all know it won't get any easier.

Sincerely,

Christina Clevenger

At first I thought that my case may have merely been filed incorrectly in Marion County courts, but when I rechecked the case, it was appropriately filed as only misdemeanors

The certified copies of my case also match the case as it was filed in Marion County and don't show that I received any felonies in my case. This problem only appeared recer

When my parents paid for my bail and lawyer I was made to sign a contract for a "loan" that would allow my parents to take all of my possessions including my condo and car. Due to this contract, and out of fear of my Dad and threats made by him, I didn't elect to go to trial, and took the plea deal, but didn't sign away my 7B right to appeal during the

  - DT* (e) the right to remain silent and the right not to be compelled to testify against himself;
  - DT* (f) the right to present evidence on his/her own behalf and to be presumed innocent.

This card references the "loan" which was actually a contract that threatened everything I'd worked for 10 years since I was kicked out of my parents' home.

I waited 4 years to receive my case files and the depositions from my case, and eventually had to write a letter to the bar disciplinary committee to receive these files, because when I contacted my prior lawyer and let him know my Dad had sat outside my house after my parents told law enforcement they would leave me alone, I was told it was a co-

When my Dad determined that I had retained my right to appeal in an attempt to obtain competent representation I was denied my case files for many years, and in my opinion After speaking with the chief of police in my hometown, the same man who assisted me during an investigation where I was brutally beaten on a locker room floor as a teenager The only way my case files would appear in Wayne County Courts and that my background check would begin coming back incorrectly would be if my Dad was involved and I

Narrative:

Linda's son is Jon F. Turpin. Jon reported that he had a altercation on the football field with [redacted] while at track practice. Jon reported that [redacted] threatened to "beat his ass" and tried to get Jon to fight him. Jon stated that he just played away from [redacted] after [redacted] tried to punch him. Jon reported that Casey Bogue stopped [redacted] from punching him. Jon then stated that after they went into the locker room there were words exchanged and then [redacted] pulled Jon off of the bench and put him in a choke hold and also punched Jon many times in the head and face. See Jon's statement for more detail.

I then went and spoke with Michael Mann and his parents. In Mann's statement, he advised that when he went into the locker room he saw [redacted] pull Jon off the bench by his head then threw Jon down to the floor. [redacted] then got on top of Jon and started punching him. [redacted] then stopped hitting Jon and Jon tried to sit up and then [redacted] put Jon in a headlock. Thorin Mann stated that they both got up and Jon stated "I never hit you" and Jon then left the locker room.

This has affected my life, but more importantly my wife's life terribly, and we're just trying to retain my rights and start a family safely. It has taken me over 5 years and the utmost patience quietly enduring harassment and abuse from my Dad to retain the right to appeal.

We were even prevented from attending my sister's wedding, and no family members attended our wedding due to defamation of me, and my sister's wedding bei

My Dad has threatened I'll be shot, stalked me, threatened cousins and public officials, he told my wife she'll be "destitute with 5 kids living under a bridge" as we Our damages and losses are in the thousands just to be married to each other. I can only expunge once in my life, and I believe I only did what I had to do in my g

If I expunge rather than appeal, it is my sincere belief my Dad will begin his last attack upon my character to destroy us, and this will affect not only me, but my wife. While incompetent due to medical maladies such as scarlet fever, and severe chemotherapy, my Dad is one of the most intelligent people I've known and this war

Do you have children Mr. Relford? If so, would you ever do this to a son or daughter of yours? It's my sincere belief that you wouldn't, especially from your reaction. There is so much more to present, and I've documented it carefully to restore my character, not for me, but so I may protect my wife, and future family and finally I

My character and rights, personal and legal, is our best defense, please, let me know if there is anything I may do to remedy my error in language, and help us resolve. I'm extremely sorry for my foul language, in my opinion you're the man and attorney we need to represent us, please let me know if you'll support us in my appeal

Thank you so much for your time, Mr. Relford.

Hi Mr. Relford,
I forgot to mention that those are also showing up in Wayne County since my Dad had them transferred without my permission via the prior lawyer.

It's worth checking Marion, Wayne, and Delaware in case my Dad does it again.

Thank you,
Jon

Dear Mr. Cavanaugh,

In my opinion these objects may be valued and insured at $5,000 each in real value currently, though they may have other significance and represent other value.

Two objects, family heirlooms and potentially priceless, yet representing a monetary worth exceeding $10,000,000 each, which signify that I am simultaneously the current overall POA, and the current overall Executor for the Turpin and Becker, Lee, and Elliott families and estates, and which rightfully belong to me are currently missing, potentially stolen, and must be returned to their rightful owner immediately, with all due haste and safety.

My (previously owned by my maternal Grandfather Frederick William Becker and Grandmother Alice Yvonne (Elliott) Becker) Cleaver, promised and passed to me directly by her while she was mentally sound and before any question to her mental validity.

My (previously owned by my paternal Grandfather Arnold Raymond Turpin and Eva Coleen (Lee) Height Board promised and passed to me directly by him while he was mentally sound and before any question to his mental validity.

These may be wrongfully in possession of Jon Brent Turpin and James Curtis Turpin, and must be returned immediately or may be considered as grand larceny against God's Word, family rules, and jurisprudence.
